

Skip Barber Racing School LLC (SBRS) has long been regarded as the world's best racing and driving school, catering to race enthusiasts as well as those looking to hone their street driving skills. In operation for over 42 years, Skip Barber Racing School has grown to offer a range of automotive entertainment, education and competition. We operate the largest racecar fleet in the world. SBRS knows that it is the employees who make a company successful. That's why SBRS is constantly seeking intelligent, motivated people with a desire to join a hard working, but relaxed environment in an exciting, fast-paced industry.

Job Title

Technician – Levels 1 - 4

Reports To:

Direct Report of Crew Chief Indirect Report of Manager

Position Summary:

This position is responsible for maintaining and repairing the open-wheel and closed-wheel racecars used in Skip Barber Racing Schools and Race Series events. Our customers' experience and safety are dependent upon the quality of the work of this position, so the ability to perform consistently to the highest standards is critical.

Description

- Under the direction of the Crew Chief and along with other technicians, conducts Morning Checks to assure that the racecars are ready for the day's programs
- Under the direction of the Crew Chief and along with other technicians, conducts Night Checks to identify and repair any issues or problems with the racecars from the day's use
- Assists in Pit Lane activities, including but not limited to, flagging, stop box, cone duty, assisting customers into and out of racecars, small repairs and adjustments, and keeping racecars clean
- Repairs and maintains the company's fleet of racecars to the standards established by the company and as directed by the Team Manager or Crew Chief
- Follows company procedure when signing out parts needed for maintenance or repair of racecars from the parts department.
- Assists in maintaining the cleanliness of the shop and other areas, including but not limited to, replacing shop tools in their proper location, emptying trash, sweeping the shop, and other tasks as assigned by the Team Manager or Crew Chief
- Dismounts, mounts and balances tires as needed for programs as directed by the Team Manager or Crew Chief
- Assists in the loading and unloading of trailers containing racecars, racecar parts, tires, or other supplies or components
- Wash and clean racecars as directed by the Team Manager or Crew Chief
- Repairs or service such vehicles with a GVWR of 10,001 pounds or more or a commercial motor vehicle,
- Operates forklift as required

Qualifications:

- Completion of an Automotive Technician training program at an accredited Technical School or Junior/Community College or equivalent)
- Has the ability and desire to work as part of a team
- Is detail oriented with excellent mechanical skills
- Is heads-up, observant, and understands the seriousness of maintaining and repairing racing cars
- Has the ability to work outdoors, as well as indoors, and at times, in inclement weather
- Has the ability to work a schedule that includes weekends, and at times, late nights
- Has the ability to travel, and potentially relocate, per company needs
- Currently owns, or is ready to purchase, the tools required of the position
- Currently has, and is able to maintain, a clean driving record so as to be able to drive company vehicles on and off site as needed.
- Seeks a career path as a professional technician/mechanic at a top-level racing team

Demonstrated ability to:

- Work to the standards of a professional automotive technician
- Work independently, maintain focus, and complete tasks correctly in the assigned time

- Be open and willing to learn SBRS operating, maintenance, and repair procedures
- Maintain a good attendance record, including arriving and leaving promptly per schedule
- Maintain a positive attitude and act professionally in front of team members, instructors, and customers. This includes maintaining his/her own appearance and apparel per company policy
- Follow all company policies and procedures, particularly those involving safety

Competitive Compensation:

- Entry level pay is $28,000 annualized salary plus full benefits package. Very accelerated advancement opportunities

Continuous Training:

- Four levels of documented technical training, each with its own skill level test conducted every six months
- Specialty training: Chassis fabrication, scales/alignment, gearbox, engines, electrical, cooling, diagnostics, parts
- CDL training if requested

Race Weekend Incentives:

- Mechanic of the race will be chosen by the team manager and crew chief for every race and will receive a $100.00 bonus and a certificate with name, date and track as well as company wide recognition in daily e-mail.
- $50 race weekend bonus for every full race weekend worked

Drive our cars:

- SBRS 3 Day Racing School after you successfully complete your 6 month introductory period
- 50% employee discount off other schools

Please submit resume and brief cover email to hr@skipbarber.com